Non-Responsive Amendment

1. The amendment to the claims filed on 18 July 2003 does not comply with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.121(c) because it does not include a complete listing of all the claims – cancelled and pending. Amendments to the claims filed after March 1, 2001 must comply with 37 CFR 1.121(c) which states:

(c) Claims.

(1) Amendment by rewriting, directions to cancel or add: Amendments to a claim must be made by rewriting such claim with all changes (e.g., additions, deletions, modifications) included. The rewriting of a claim (with the same number) will be construed as directing the cancellation of the previous version of that claim. A claim may also be canceled by an instruction.

(i) A rewritten or newly added claim must be in clean form, that is, without markings to indicate the changes that have been made. A parenthetical expression should follow the claim number indicating the status of the claim as amended or newly added (e.g., “amended,” “twice amended,” or “new”).

(ii) If a claim is amended by rewriting such claim with the same number, the amendment must be accompanied by another version of the rewritten claim, on one or more pages separate from the amendment, marked up to show all the changes relative to the previous version of that claim. A parenthetical expression should follow the claim number indicating the status of the claim, e.g., “amended,” “twice amended,” etc. The parenthetical expression “amended,” “twice amended,” etc. should be the same for both the clean version of the claim under paragraph (c)(1)(i) of this section and the marked up version under this paragraph. The changes may be shown by brackets (for deleted matter) or underlining (for added matter), or by any equivalent marking system. A marked up version does not have to be supplied for an added claim or a canceled claim, as it is sufficient to state that a particular claim has been added, or canceled.

(2) A claim canceled by amendment (deleted in its entirety) may be reinstated only by a subsequent amendment presenting the claim as a new claim with a new claim number.

2. If applicants attempt to comply with the revised amendment format, the amendment should include:

1. Each amendment section starting on a separate sheet
2. A separate “clean” version of a currently amended paragraph or claim is NO LONGER REQUIRED (except for a substitute specification – see No. 5 below)
3. If the amendment adds, changes, or deletes any claim, a listing of all claims that are, or were, in the application, as follows:
 - All claims listed in ascending numerical order
 - The text of all claims under examination; no text for “canceled” or “withdrawn” claims
 - A status identifier for each claim in parentheses after claim number, (for example, “original” or “currently amended”)
 - All “currently amended” claims should have markings (strikethrough and underlining suggested)
 - Grouping of consecutive canceled or withdrawn claims permitted
